

Renaissance Paragraph Template #1

The _____ occurred during the _____ to _____ centuries, and was a period of _____ of _____ and _____ culture. The _____ is considered one of the most important and significant time periods in _____. The _____ began in _____ and spread throughout _____ by the end of the _____ century. The _____ was more than a _____ it was a _____ age.

During the Renaissance political leaders were intertwined with religion since a monarch's rule was justified by divine right (chosen by God to rule) such as _____ in _____ challenged the _____ by _____ a new form of _____. He created the _____ of England because he wanted a male heir from his wife, Catherine, and wanted a _____. This was in direct violation of the Roman Catholic Church and the pope who would not grant Henry VIII a divorce. Henry VIII broke away from the Roman Catholic Church and became the head of his own church, The _____ of _____. Although he was successful at divorcing his wife, Catherine, he was unsuccessful in producing a male heir (next in line to the throne). His second wife, _____ had a _____ named _____. After his second wife could not produce a male heir, he had her arrested for treason (going against the king and state). He put her on trial and had her executed by beheading. He next married _____ who gave him a male heir named _____. He would become king after Henry's death, and die young. He changed the succession laws so a woman could rule England as queen. _____ his half-sister would become the next ruler of England as _____.

Word Bank

Directions: Please only use each word in a box once. (note: there are some duplicates, you may use each once)

Revival/Rebirth	England	16th
14 th	Renaissance	Daughter
Creating	Elizabeth	Renaissance
Renaissance	Italy	Church of England
Greek	Edward	16th
Roman Catholic Church	Golden	Europe
Renaissance	Rebirth	Roman
Christianity	Church	Divorce
Mary	Henry VIII	Jane Seymour
Anne Boleyn	Queen	