

WHAT WERE THE RESULTS OF WORLD WAR I?

Do-Now: Using the map below (document #1) answer the following question.

- Name the three members of the Central Powers. A) _____
 B) _____ C) _____

Document #1

EUROPE AFTER THE TREATY OF VERSAILLES, 1919

- According to document #1, what happened to both the Austria-Hungary Empire and the Ottoman Empire?

Document #2

Allies	Deaths in Battle	Wounded in Battle
France	1,357,800	4,266,000
British empire	908,371	2,090,212
Russia	1,700,000	4,950,000
Italy	462,391	953,886
United States	50,585	205,690
Other	502,421	342,585
Central Powers
Germany	1,808,546	4,247,143
Austria-Hungary	922,500	3,620,000
Ottoman empire	325,000	400,000

- Approximately how many soldiers died during World War I? _____

- Why did America suffer relatively few casualties? _____

Document #3

“We will never forgive those who humiliated us, at the signing of the Treaty of Versailles. One day soon, we will regain all the land that was stolen from us. Even now, I have ordered a complete rebuilding of our military forces in preparation for the day when we get what was once ours, will be ours again. We will have revenge against those who tried to destroy our nation.” Dalfo Tihelr (Unscramble) 1933

Based on document #3, how did World War I help cause WWII?

Document #4

In France, one out of every two men between the ages of 21- 34 was killed in World War I.

Based on document #1, one effect on the French labor supply would be _____

How do you think that problem was overcome? _____

Based on this document, one effect on France's future population would be _____

Based on this document, one effect on France's desire to fight another major war would be _____
