

Name: _____ Date: _____

Stalin

Lenin died in 1924. Who would take power? _____ or _____

Stalin Takes Power

- The name Stalin means _____
- Once in power, Stalin set out to make the Soviet Union a _____
_____.
- Stalin's plan to industrialize the USSR was known as the _____.

Stalin Five Year Plans

- Aimed at building _____

 - Brought all economic activities under _____ control
 - _____ set goals that must be met (_____).
- Workers who succeeded received bonuses. Workers who did not were _____.
- During the 1930s, _____ production grew.
- New _____ were built across the Soviet Union.

Results of the Five-Year Plan

- The standard of living remained _____
- Didn't focus on producing _____ goods

Revolution in Agriculture

Stalin also put agriculture under _____ control

- Forced _____ to give up their land and live on state-owned farm called _____ which were large farms owned and operated by _____ as a group (_____)
 - Peasants were allowed to keep their personal possessions but had to turn over all farm animals and _____ to the _____.
 - The government set _____ and _____
 - Peasants resisted collectivization by _____
-

Results of Collectivization

- The government responded with brutal force
 - Forced Famine 1932-1933 – 7,000,000 Deaths
 - _____ Stalin's control, but did not improve _____
-

The Great Purge

To Purge means to _____

- In the 1930's, out of fear that other Communist party members were plotting against him, Stalin launched _____
- During the Great Purge, Stalin accused thousands of people of crimes against the _____
- Stalin targeted _____ through a Reign of _____
- During the Great Purge, Stalin tried these people in public. These trials were called _____
- Many of the accused were tortured, _____ or sent to prison camps