*You showed me nutmegs and nutmeg husks,
Ostrich feathers and elephant tusks,
Hundreds of tons of costly tea
Packed in wood by the Cingalee
And a myriad drugs which disagree.
Cinnamon, myrrh and mace you showed,
Golden paradise birds that glowed,
More cigars than a man can count
And choice port wine from a bright glass fount.
You showed, for a most delightful hour,
The wealth of the world and London's power.*
