Once you have completed all of the Quizzes online, this chart should assist you in determining which Global History Topics need further study. The object of Smart Studying is to study the topics you struggle with, not the topics you know. The above list should assist you with studying those topics that you might be struggling with or have not spent enough time with the details on them. You should use the online Smart Study Guide located on the sidebar menu under Global History to study these topics.

Each quiz is worth $\qquad$ Points towards your quiz grade. Your list needs to be approved and signed once completed for credit.
