

Document #2

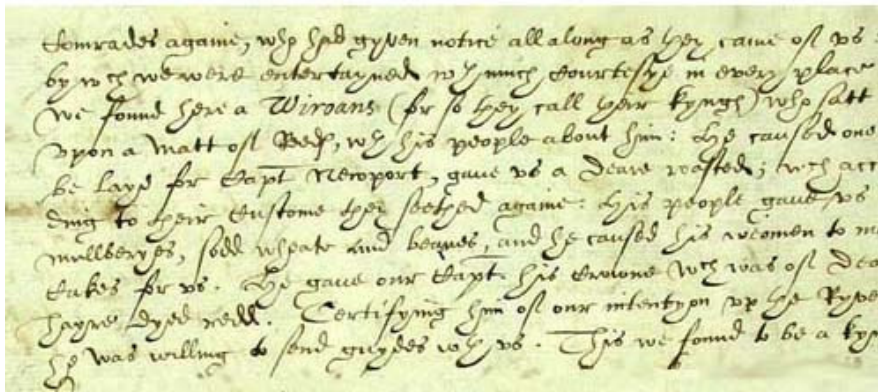

TRANSCRIPT

Satterday we passed a few short reaches; and . 5. mile of Poore Cottage we went a shore. Heer we found our kinde

Comrades againe, who had gyven notice all along as they came of us: by which we were entertayned with much Courtesye in every place. We found here a Wiroans (for so they call their kynges) who satt vpon a matt of Reedes, with his people about him: He casued one to be layd for

Satterday we passed a few short reaches; and . 5. mile of Poore Cottage we went a shore. Heer we found our kinde
Comrades

Comrades againe, who had gyven notice all along as they came of vs:
by vs we were entertayned wth much courtesye in every place.
We found here a Wiroans (for so they call their kynges) who satt vpon a matt of Reedes, wth his people about him: He caused one to be layd for Capt Newport, gave vs a Deare roasted; w^{ch} accoding to their Customs they seethed againe: His people gave vs mullberyes, sold wheate and beanes, and he caused his women to make cakes for vs. He gave our Capt. his Crowne w^{ch} was of Deares hayre dyed red. Certifying him of our intentyon w^{ch} he was willing to send guydes wth vs. Hee we found to be a kyng

Captain Newport, gave vs a Deare roasted; which according to their Custom they seethed againe: His people gave vs mullberyes, sodd wheate and beanes, and he caused his weomen to make Cakes for Vs. He gave our Captaine his Crowne which was of Deares hayre dyed redl. Certifying him of our intentyon vp the Ryver, he was willing to send guydes with vs.